Objectives	This course aims to provide a general overview of the migration that began in the 1960s from Turkey to Germany as part of the recruitment agreement between the Federal Republic of Germany and Turkey, and the literature that emerged as a result of this migration.
Content	The seminar consists of two parts: The first part deals with migration, the reasons for migration and the resulting literature. In particular, the authors of Turkish origin, their works and the themes of their works as well as the significance of these works in German literature will be discussed. In the second part, the works of the authors from the first generation are analyzed in particular.
