

Job Title: Project Engineer Testing

Join Us as Project Engineer Testing for a Sustainable future

We are seeking a dedicated and innovative Project Engineer to join our Laboratory team. As a Project Engineer, your main responsibility will be to manage the testing of products, ensuring high quality, and on-time delivery. Interested candidates are invited to apply with their updated resumes.

Experience & Further Qualifications

- Bachelor's or Masters Degree in Electrical / Electronic Engineering or equivalent,
- Advanced level of English,
- Preferably new graduate or at least 1 year Experience in product safety testing especially in commercial products and household appliances and international standards (EN, IEC) knowledge strongly preferred,
- Anticipates customer expectations and identify best solutions,
- Strong team work and communication skills, eager to learn continuously,
- Having Driver's license,
- No restriction for travelling,

Job Description

Responsible for execution of conformity assessments for the safety, quality and/or performance of electrical household and commercial products according to International Standards EN, IEC etc.

- Acts as technical expert within the project.
- Defines the testing basis, testing programs and plans.
- Analyses test data and interprets test results.
- Ensures that test results meet the requirements.
- Prepares test report.
- Communicates and coordinates with other internal and external labs for testing support if necessary.
- Might support sales in calculating costs and capacities.
- Might attend other external or internal events to provide technical expertise.
- Conducts inspection procedure when needed.

If you are interested in the job, please send your updated CV to hr@tr.tuv.com e-mail address latest by 07 June 2024.