Objectives	The aim of this seminar is to support students in the process of preparation of a master's thesis.
Content	This seminar prepares students for writing their master's thesis. The students receive counselling in how to write a master's thesis. Students present the status of their work and choice of research methods. The theoretical concepts and the methodological approach as well as resarch problems of the individual participants will be discussed together. This gives students the opportunity both to critically reflect on their own academic approach and to provide constructive feedback on other master's theses.
