Objectives	The aim of this course is to examine and discuss the jurisprudence of the Constitutional Court and the ECHR on the freedoms of belief, expression, assembly and association which are among the fundamental values of the democratic society.
Content	The course examines and discusses the case law of the Constitutional Court and the ECHR on freedom of belief, expression, assembly and association. In this context the restriction regime of Constitution and the Convention shall be evaluated in general terms. After that the material dimension of freedoms will be examined. In this context, first of all a theoretical framework will be built between the freedoms in question and the concept of democratic society. Then the case law of the Constitutional Court and the ECHR on each of the freedoms will be discussed.
