Objectives
Objectives		Compliance covers all measures that help to ensure a company and its employees to behave in accordance with the law. This legal area is becoming increasingly important, not only because there is a risk of high material damage, but also because compliance incidents are usually accompanied by extensive damage to a company's image. The first part of the lecture covers the basic principles, key structural elements, tasks and objectives of compliance. The second part deals with special areas. The course combines classic elements of a lecture with practice elements by discussing exemplary cases.
