Objectives	After the new Turkish Civil Procedure Code entered into force on 1 October 2011, new conflicts have arisen. The goal of this lecture is to explore the concept and logic of new regulations and to offer new and practical solutions to these regulations.
Content	Within the scope of the course, seminar papers will be distributed in accordance with the methodology of the law and limited to the subjects considered important in practice. With these papers being sent to the students and their teachers, the weekly homework will be given and the teacher and the other students will listen to criticism about this topic. It is expected that the student will come up with new solutions.
